What our customers say about us

	“ These go-lives are a testament to what's possible when the right teams come together with a shared commitment to getting it right. Fortude's dedication and collaborative approach were instrumental in making this milestone a reality, and in ensuring our operations never missed a beat throughout the transitions. We are proud of what we have achieved together, and excited about what comes next.” Ines Ashton Digital & AI Strategy Director The Compleat Food Group
“ The Fortude team have been excellent during this project; they hit the ground running and were able to solve a wide range of issues that we had been experiencing. By modernizing our enterprise solutions platform, we are looking to improve the overall business' efficiency, supporting our growth ambitions for the years ahead.” Katia Berlin Vice President, Strategy and Business Transformation APP Group
